Your Vision Can Make Heaven Crowded

In Isaiah 6 we see the start of Isaiah’s work as a prophet. Isaiah describes a vision in which he sees the Lord sitting on the throne in the temple. This is an incredible scene and Isaiah is quickly overwhelmed in the moment. He recognizes how holy God is and how unclean he is. (Isaiah 6:5)

In Isaiah 6:6-7 a seraphim cleanses him of his sin so that he can step into the calling God is about to place on him. After this incredible moment, Isaiah hears the voice of God as he calls to preach a message to the nation of Israel.

Then I Heard The Voice Of The Lord Saying, “Whom Shall I Send? And Who Will Go For Us?”

Isaiah has been symbolically cleansed from his sins and now hears the voice of the Lord. It’s important to note the order here. Before Isaiah is ready to step into the calling God has for him, he must first be convicted of his sin and cleansed of his sin.

We see in this passage that there seems to be a shortage of people who are ready to step into God’s calling. The reason why so few are willing is because so few understand their sin and the length to which God has gone to make us ready to serve him.

Isaiah understands God’s holiness and is now fully prepared to enter service.

And I Said, “Here I Am Send Me!”

In response to the Lord asking, “Whom shall I send?” Isaiah speaks up and emphatically says, “Here I am send me!”

This is an inspiring image of one responding to the call God had placed on their life. But it doesn’t just inspire us, it shows us how we can do the same.

Again, pay attention to the way this happened. First, Isaiah was overcome by his own uncleanness, his sin. Second, the seraphim pointed him to God’s provision for cleansing his sin. And finally, God sends Isaiah out, giving the prophet an important mission to fulfill. Isaiah is eager and confident to live up to the calling that God has for him.

This gives us a glimpse of how God wants to use each of us. God has an important mission for you. But before you are ready you need to understand your own sinfulness and accept the cleansing of Jesus’ blood on the cross.
